

PURPLE COMMUNITY CABINET

Purple Community is Van Andel Institute's dynamic community awareness and fundraising program that connects individuals, schools, teams, companies and corporations, that want to join the fight against cancer and neurodegenerative diseases, to the resources needed for action.

The Purple Community Cabinet is comprised of community leaders who want to make an impact on cancer and neurodegenerative disease research at Van Andel Institute through supporting the fundraising initiatives of the Purple Community program. These individuals serve as ambassadors and advocates for Purple Community through their work on this dynamic, hands-on, grassroots fundraising team, helping to create new events and partnerships, promote Purple Community events and activities, and volunteering throughout the year at events around West Michigan and beyond.

Purple Community Cabinet Structure

Executive Cabinet:

- Co-Chairs (2)
- Vice Chair (1)
- Event Chair (1)
- PR & Marketing Chair (1)
- Volunteer Chair (1)

Goals of the Purple Community Cabinet

1. Advocate for the Purple Community program and Van Andel Institute.
2. Connect Purple Community to new networks and organizations.
3. Attend and/or host Purple Community events.
4. Increase visibility by inviting friends/colleagues to engage with Purple Community.
5. Generate new partnerships for Purple Community.

Expectations

- Attend and actively participate in monthly or quarterly meetings, depending on the position held within the Cabinet.
- Support a Purple Community Signature Event semi-annually through participation or volunteerism.
- Network for Purple Community while actively recruiting new event prospects and corporate partners as well as new Purple Community Cabinet Members.
- Passion for the Purple Community mission of raising funds for cancer and neurodegenerative disease research at Van Andel Institute.

Purple Community Cabinet: Executive Cabinet Position Description

The Cabinet will be comprised of no more than 50 individuals (ambassadors), including 6 Chairs who will serve on the Executive Cabinet. The 6 Chairs will be broken down by 2 Co-Chairs, 1 Vice Chair, 1 Event Chair, 1 Marketing & PR Chair, and 1 Volunteer Chair. The Executive Cabinet will meet monthly and will provide additional strategy, leadership, and support to the Purple Community Staff. The Executive Cabinet does not, however, have any formal governance over the Purple Community Program or Van Anadel Institute (this responsibility lies, for the totality of the organization, with the Van Anadel Institute Board of Directors.)

Each Co-Chair will be asked to serve a 2 year term, and the Vice Chair will step in to replace one of the Co-Chairs during a transition year. Other Chairs will be asked to commit for at least one year.

Purple Community Executive Cabinet Chair Expectations:

In addition to the general cabinet responsibilities detailed in the cabinet ambassador description, responsibilities for the Purple Community Executive Cabinet Chairs are as follows:

- Cabinet Meeting Leadership
Cabinet Chairs will assume speaking roles at cabinet meetings, and contribute to the overall efficiency and effectiveness of meetings.
- Team Management & Accountability
Each Chair will provide support to the ambassadors. They will serve as primary contacts to answer questions, assist in relationship-building and check in with ambassadors as needed.
- Planning Sessions
Chairs will participate in planning sessions with Purple Community staff as needed.
- Community Representation
Cabinet Chairs will represent Purple Community and the cabinet in the community both informally and formally, including occasionally being asked to participate in speaking engagements to community and outreach groups (such as schools, colleges and corporate partners) as needed, utilizing talking points put together by the Purple Community team.
